Geronimo Stilton

My favourite book character is a mouse called Geronimo Stilton. He publishes a newspaper called The Rodent's Gazette and it is the most read newspaper on Mouse Island, Geronimo's home. His arch rival is a mouse called Sally Ratmoussen who runs The Daily Rat, The Rodent's Gazette's most competitive newspaper.

Geronimo has a sister called Thea, a cousin called Trap, (who in his opinion is the most obnoxious mouse he knows), and his favourite nephew called Benjamin. He also has a grandfather called William Shortpaws, He is also known as Cheap Mouse Willy. William founded The Rodent's Gazette 20 years ago, the same time Molly Ratmoussen, Sally's grandmother, founded The Daily Rat.

Geronimo is a book mouse; he doesn't feel comfortable doing athletics and sports. His sister, Thea is the complete opposite. But somehow a peaceful day turns out to be a living nightmare!. He is a really funny character and that is why he is my favourite book character.
