

WELLINGTON FAMILY DAY PROGRAMME

Part of the Storylines Festival of New Zealand Children's Writers & Illustrators 15-22 August 2010

Wellington Town Hall and Capital E, Sunday 15 August 10am-3pm

→ For more info please visit www.storylines.org.nz

Storylines
festival

Wellington town hall										Capital e
west court foyer	flott theatre	green room	hall
WELCOME ZONE Opening Ceremony 9.45	BORDERS BOOKS ALIVE Drama	HERITAGE HOTELS BOOK TALK Authors talk about their work	BOOK WORKS Arts and crafts	BORDERS BOOKSHOP Book sales and signings	SCHOLASTIC BOOKS OUT LOUD Story reading from favourite books	PURE CAPITAL THINKING FACTOPIA Non-fiction	HACHETTE NZ ARTISTS IN ACTION	THE CHILDREN'S BOOKSHOP WELLINGTON Book sales and signings		CAPITAL E (Across Civic Square) Performance Zone
10.00 – 10.30am	All Day  Welcome Desk, information and programme updates - Civic Square entrance	Storytellers Moira Wairama and Tony Hopkins	Kararaina Uatuku Stories for little ones in Te Reo Maori and English	All day  Book making - folded and funny books to make and take home	Ask them a question, tell them a joke, show them your costume or get your book signed.	Visitors and guests read stories aloud all day  Read me a story	All day  Fabulous activities all day!	All day  Come and see your favourite illustrators making amazing pictures all day:  Enter the Factopia Village to explore the world around you	Books signed by visiting authors - or ask them a question  "How do you know what a sea monster looks like?" David Elliot  Diana Neild + Philip Webb	More Family Day activities at Capital E !  Book Launch: Piggity Wiggity... and the School Concert Diana Neild and Philip Webb Performance by Thorndon School
10.30 – 11.00am		Tara Fagan: CORE Education. Connecting authors to schools	Fifi Colston shows us how she begins her stories		"Where have I seen you before?" Fifi Colston	Judith Holloway reads
11.00 – 11.30am	Buggy park	Deborah Hale Dance School A montage of NZ Books Pt 1	Dastardly adventures and experiments with Des Hunt	Make delicate pohutukawa flowers to hang from your ears, in your hair or on a tree
11.30 – 12.00pm	Lost Children	Kararaina Uatuku and friends sing songs and read stories	Baby Rock & Rhyme session 0-2yrs		Des Hunt	Two Little Pirates Ruth Paul	Watch Des Hunt's amazing experiments	Ben Galbraith	"Did you really write a dictionary?!" Judith Holloway	Get creative and make a bookmark. Available all day.
12.00 – 12.30pm	Competition Zone Drop your story, poem or illustration competition entries here. Entries close at 2.00pm Prize giving at 2.30pm	Storytellers Moira Wairama and Tony Hopkins	Raroa School Choir	Wildly cool animal bookmarks	"Your pictures are so cool!" Philip Webb	Fifi Colston reads	Help make an enormous sea-monster		Ruth Paul
12.30 – 1.00pm		Deborah Hale Dance School A montage of NZ Books Pt 2	Judith Holloway needs your help to craft "The Great Escape"		"What do you do in your spare time?" Ben Galbraith	Des Hunt reads		Philip Webb	"My mum told me you make wearable art" Fifi Colston	Come over to the tent in the Capital E indoor playground and see a performance of Tall Tales for Little Ears [Anna Burns and Catherine Swallow] Then have a go at making a pig snout to wear home
1.00 – 1.30pm	Pirate Treasure Hunt! Join in the treasure hunt 5-8 years + 9-12 years	Watercress Tuna... (Patricia Grace) Cannons Creek School	From a bird in the head to a book in the hand - Ruth Paul	Pirate eye patches	Judith Holloway	Diana Neild reads	Create a leaf rubbing and hang it on the tree		"Your books are scary but I love them" Des Hunt
1.30 – 2.00pm	11am and 1.30pm start		Pippa Werry talks about her latest book	Make some pirate beads and golden treasure jewellery	"I heard you live in a straw house - what's that like?" Ruth Paul	Pippa Werry reads	How many fish can you catch? Catch and decorate your fish		Diana Neild
2.00 – 2.30pm	Help us to make Storylines Family Day even better,	Storytellers Moira Wairama and Tony Hopkins	Piggity-Wiggity adventures with Diana Neild		David Elliot	Adele Jackson reads			"Do you draw on the computer?" Ben Galbraith
2.30 – 3.00pm	complete the survey and enter the draw to win book prizes	Competition Prizegiving	Raroa School Choir	Make a paper plate sun visor - the hard part is choosing which one!	"Is another Piggity book planned?" Diana Neild	Read me a story	Make your own pet rock pocket-friend or an origami whale	Meet the 2010 Gavin Bishop Award winner, Harriet Bailey		The Storylines Illustrators' Exhibition will be on all of August

Plus: Face painting; Playcentre parents' room; Dress up as a pirate or your favourite book character and you might win a prize. Coffee & food available: Fruitscoop - real fruit gelato plus much, much more...