

Book Chat Open Evening

Book Chat, the Storylines book club for adults with an interest in literature for young people, is holding an open evening, to which you are cordially invited.

Date: 1 November 2010

Time: 7.30pm

Location: The Library, King's School, 258 Remuera Rd, Remuera, Auckland

Bring: Two books for young people to discuss – new or old; picture book, fiction or non-fiction

This event is open to Storylines members. If you wish to bring a friend, membership forms will be available for them to join up on the night.

NB: The library is on the ground floor of 'The Light House' which is the 3-storey building on your left as you enter the main gates of the school. Access will be through the reception area at the front. Parking will be on the road, not in the grounds.

